

NEW COMPROMISE ON PEACE TREATY GETS ACCEPTANCE

Proposal is Framed By
"Mild Reservationist Element."

LODGE GIVES SUPPORT

United States Assumes
No Obligation of Military.

Washington, Feb. 11.—A new compromise on the disputed Lodge reservation to article 10 of the League of Nations covenant was agreed to this afternoon by Republican leaders seeking ratification of the peace treaty.

Framed by the Republican "mild reservationists" the new proposal embodying a modification of the Lodge reservation will be offered when the senate takes up the treaty again on Monday, it was announced.

Republican leaders expressed the hope the proposal would prove acceptable to the Democratic side and would pave the way to the breaking of the deadlock on article ten.

The test of the compromise reservation which is to be offered as a sub for the original Lodge one, is as follows: "The United States assumes no obligation to preserve by the use of its military or naval forces, its resources, or by the economic boycott the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations, whether members of the League or not, under the provisions of articles ten or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any articles of the treaty for any purpose, unless in any particular case the congress, which under the constitution has the sole power to declare war, shall by act or joint resolution, so provide."

Senator Lodge was understood to have assured the "mild reservationists" he would give his support to the new proposal.

In view of the objections expressed by the president to the employment of the language "the United States assumes no obligation," in the original Lodge reservation, and in Senator Hitchcock's new resolution did not escape the attention of the Republican "irreconcilables," opposed to ratification. They expressed doubt if the new proposal would be acceptable to the president if adopted.

The "mild reservationists" replied, they were "going to take the president at his word," and seek an agreement with the Democratic side on the basis of their new proposal.

DESPONDENCY IS CAUSE OF SUICIDE

Cleveland, Feb. 11.—Despondency, caused by the death of her father and ill health, prompted 19 year old Mildred V. Ames, of Ada, Ohio, to attempt suicide by swallowing poison in a hotel here early this morning. According to witnesses at the Huron Road hospital, very little hope is extended for her recovery.

On a writing table in the girl's room was an unfinished letter to her mother at Ada.

POLICE LOCATE A MURDER SUSPECT

Cleveland, Feb. 11.—After an extensive investigation, police today formally charged Frank W. Whited, an ex-soldier, with the murder of Mrs. Frances A. Stockwell of Philadelphia, chorus girl, on the morning of Feb. 1.

Whited roomed in the home in the rear of which the girl's body was found. The finding of a bloody shirt in Whited's room a week ago, centered suspicion on him. Police declare that they have established that Whited met Mrs. Stockwell on the night preceding the murder.

ALLEGED MUTINY IN ARREST OF SHIP'S CREW

Washington, Feb. 11.—The crew of the U. S. Shipping Board vessel Poughkeepsie have been placed under arrest in Bermuda for mutiny, the navy department was advised today.

The arrests were made at the request of the U. S. Consul at Bermuda and the men are to be returned to Hampton Roads for delivery to federal officers, the commanding officer of the Sacramento reported.

The mutiny received by the navy department was as follows: "At request of U. S. Consul agent Bermuda, an placing crew of U. S. S. Poughkeepsie under arrest for mutiny for return to Hampton Roads and delivery to federal officers. Armed guards being furnished from destroyers and may delay return of men for some days."

Details as to the cause of the mutiny were lacking.

The Poughkeepsie is operated by the Cosmopolitan Shipping company of 42 Broadway, New York.

The Poughkeepsie was considerably delayed on its last trip to Europe by an accident, it was learned at the shipping board today and it is presumed that members of the crew attempted to leave the ship in Europe and that they were captured and forced to bring the ship back to the United States and trouble developed on the high seas, which forced the captain to put in at Bermuda. The shipping board is without a definite report on the mutiny but an investigation has been ordered as soon as the vessel reaches Hampton Roads.

SUBMARINE OVERDUE FEAR ENTERTAINED FOR ITS SAFETY

Washington, Feb. 11.—The navy department today was anxiously awaiting reports from three submarines overdue at Norfolk from Bermuda.

A mother ship, which left Bermuda with four submarines, came into Norfolk late yesterday, storm battered and her crew greatly weakened from struggles with the storms. One of the submarines came into port with the mother ship. A relief party will be sent to search for the other three submarines today if they are not reported.

PRESIDENT ANGRY OVER STATEMENT OF HIS CONDITION

Washington, Feb. 11.—President Wilson is deeply incensed over the publishing of diagnosis of his case, it was learned from his intimate friends today. The article in the Baltimore Sun declared that Dr. Hugh Young of Baltimore had announced that President Wilson's illness was due to cerebral thrombosis—a blood clot on the brain.

The article stated that the president is recovering from impairment of his left leg and left arm, but that at no time has his mental capacity been impaired.

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 11.—Forty eight alleged Russian "reds" being held in the United States immigration station here, are under heavy guard today following receipt by U. S. Immigration Commissioner H. M. White of written threats to "tear down the house." The Russians are being held for deportation.

Federal Amendment Trembling in the Balance Say Leaders.

NEED 7 OUT OF 10

Leaders Hopeful as Balancing Still Continues.

Washington, Feb. 11.—The federal suffrage amendment giving women the right to vote in national elections is trembling in the balance. Reading for ratification purposes seven states out of a total of ten yet to be heard from—and many of these doubtful—it is beginning to look as only the heroic intervention of one or both of the big parties can save the measure from defeat in so far as the 1920 presidential election is concerned.

This intervention, it is believed here, may ultimately come about, for with woman's suffrage generally considered eventually inevitable and with some sixteen million votes dependent thereon, male politicians here are prepared to resort to drastic measures to prevent their particular party from having to bear the blame of defeating the movement.

Today Idaho will cast her vote for or against national woman's suffrage. Tomorrow Arizona's legislature in special session will do likewise.

On Monday New Mexico will follow suit, and though none of these states is considered a certainty, the national woman's party here is hopeful. Oklahoma probably will vote next, Gov. Robertson of the state having been urged to call a special session of the legislature for Feb. 23. As Oklahoma has already adopted woman suffrage, it is believed she will ratify the federal amendment.

Maryland's legislature, it is announced, is in regular session this month and is expected to ratify but as to the remaining states—Connecticut, Vermont, Delaware, West Virginia and Washington—the future is very hazy.

In some of the states, the governors are opposed to the amendment and refuse to call the special session necessary to pass upon it.

War Department Would Improve Live Stock in the Philippines.

Washington, Feb. 11.—The war department is going to take up cattle breeding. Through its bureau of insular affairs the department has purchased in Texas 100 Hereford bulls and 20 Hereford heifers for breeding into the stock of Philippine zebu cows. The Herefords will be forwarded soon to the Philippines aboard an army transport for use in the island of Mindanao. The insular affairs bureau considers the live stock industry not only as practicable in the Philippines, but quite promising, about 48,000 square miles of the archipelago being grass lands.

WALL ST. COUP FRUSTRATED BY MESSENGER BOY

Greatest Conspiracy in History of the Street Say Police.

THREE UNDER ARREST

Theft of $5,000,000 In Securities Attempted It is Alleged.

New York, Feb. 11.—With three men under arrest, the police are searching today for a fourth suspect to clear up what they believe may prove the greatest conspiracy in the history of Wall street for the theft of bonds and stocks from brokerage firms.

Wall street messenger boys, it was said, were to be used as tools in the theft of $5,000,000 worth of securities which were to be smuggled into Canada and sold through "fences."

Those under arrest are: Irving Gluck, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y.; Joseph Gluck, a brother, and Edward J. Furey.

They are being held on the specific charge of stealing $2,500,000 worth of securities from Parish and Company at 115 Broadway. Irving Gluck who was a Wall street messenger, is said to have confessed to the police that he was involved in the theft of $2,000,000 worth of securities in the past six months. He is alleged to have declared that practically all of them were sold through his brother, David W. Sullivan and Company of 10 Wall street.

The securities which the Gluck brothers and Furey are accused of stealing were taken from the pocket of Murray Fox, a messenger employed by Parish and Company. Upon being questioned, Fox was said to have told the police that Furey, who is well known in the "White Light" district had revealed to him the plans for the big coup. After the theft of the bonds the conspirators were to go to Toronto, Canada. In the meantime however, some of the messenger boys approached "got cold feet," disarranging the plans of the leaders.

BITTER HATRED IS NOW PART OF TRIAL OF SEN. NEWBERRY

Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 11.—Bitter hatreds hidden until now under the camouflage of pleasant smiles have broken out here in the Newberry trial colony as a result of the testimony given yesterday by former Governor Chase S. Osborn.

One by one he assailed the Newberry campaign managers, attacking in his testimony especially those who formerly followed his flag and who deserted to the Newberry colors under the stress of the hottest campaign in the history of Michigan.

The cross examination of the ex-governor may be postponed for several days at least, until Mark T. McKee and Miller Oakman, defendants particularly singled out by Osborn, are well enough to resume their places in the court room. Both are influenza victims.

CONFESSION OF MAN ACCUSED OF I. W. W. RIOTS IS READ

Montesano, Wash., Feb. 11.—The confession of Loren Roberts, one of the eleven alleged I. W. W. on trial here for the murder of Lieut. Warren G. Grimm, American legion member, who was killed at Centralia, during the armistice day parade, is expected to be read in court here today.

Roberts confession may prove the pivot on which the testimony of the ten other prisoners will turn. Roberts will be later held for observation as to his sanity if the court approves the plea of the defense.

The court room today presented the appearance of an arsenal. All the weapons used in the street fighting are on exhibition.

BOLSHEVISM SPREADS IN MIDDLE EUROPE

In middle Europe the treaty of Versailles is called a "tragedy of ignorance," because it has split up the strong states into small nationalities which are continually in friction with each other and therefore do not work and produce. This division and idleness is encouraging the westward advance of Bolshevism by propaganda, and fears are expressed that it will enter the states printed above in black without firing a shot.

COURT PROCEEDINGS TIED UP PENDING DECISION

MARTIAL LAW ENDS AS MAN IS LED AWAY

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 11.—William Lockett, condemned murderer of Geneva Hardman, today was safely behind the bars of Eddyville penitentiary. Late last night Lockett was led to a waiting special train on which were 400 soldiers with machine guns and hand grenades and placed in an especially prepared compartment, manacled and guarded by a hundred men.

The removal of Lockett was accomplished without a flurry of excitement. The authorities guarded their movements with the utmost caution. Telegraph and telephone lines were closed to public use preventing the sending of news of his departure to the outside world.

But a few persons were in the public square when a cordon of fifty veterans of the Argonne filed out of the courthouse door. In their center was the prisoner, his head bent low to escape notice.

With the departure of more than half of the federal troops stationed here, the end of martial law is now only a matter of hours. The inquest into the deaths of the five victims of the riot will be held Friday. The funerals of three of the victims were held today.

It was revealed here today following the departure of Lockett that soldiers of the first division guarding him were offered a reward of $1,000 to kill him.

A heavy guard is being maintained about the home of County Judge F. A. Bullock, who is charged by the people here with having fired on the members of the mob. Judge Bullock denies the charge.

ARCHER STANDS LOSS

$10,000 Liberty Bond Missing at the Ohio State Treasury.

Columbus, Feb. 11.—The disappearance of a $10,000 Liberty bond belonging to the workmen's compensation fund from the vault of the state treasury last October was made public in a formal report made by Auditor of State A. V. Donahey to Governor Cox and in a statement by R. W. Archer, treasurer of state, who has announced he will make good the loss. While making a finding against the state treasurer for recovery on the bonds, Auditor Donahey absolves the treasurer from any moral responsibility, agreeing with Archer that its loss was probably due to inadequacy of the facilities for handling the vast volume of securities under present arrangements in the treasurer's office.

"The only theory I can advance for the disappearance of the bond," said Archer, "is that in the handling of the multitude of securities it is possible and quite probable that the bond, which was inclosed in an ordinary packet, was misplaced, with other papers, and has been lost or destroyed."

There is some talk also that a ten day recess may be taken so as to give the Republicans opportunity to re-pass any measure which Governor Cox may veto.

It is claimed by some of the house members that sufficient funds have not been appropriated to meet the salary increases granted to state employees and that additional revenue producing measures must be enacted.

OHIO HAPPENINGS

Town To Be Moved.

Dayton, O., Feb. 11.—The task of transferring an old town to a new site will begin shortly when a caravan of flour mills, saw mills, bank buildings, factories and residences start on great wheels from the present site of the town of Osborn to the new site two miles east and along the pike. Land upon which the town now stands was condemned to make way for the conservancy project.

Ormsby-Finney Case Now Before U. S. District Court.

SATER TAKES HAND

Sensational Relations Develop in Hearing at Cincinnati.

Actions on the part of George F. Ormsby, Cincinnati attorney, former Xenian, and now on parole from St. Elizabeth's hospital for the insane at Washington, has been instrumental in completely tying up the United States District court, at Cincinnati, in connection with his case against Joseph A. Finney, et al., attorney of this city, and administrator of Ormsby's estate.

The case began several months ago when Ormsby filed charges to know why J. A. Finney should not appear in court for contempt. When the late Judge Hollister was on the Cincinnati bench, Mr. Finney sent him information concerning Ormsby, showing that he had been in an insane asylum from which he was now out on parole, and which showed that the man was not mentally qualified to appear in court. The jurist ignored the information, however, and let the case go on.

Because the case was now to be heard by United States District Judges, John E. Sater and Judge Peck, Ormsby, wishing to reserve Judge Sater, if the case should be lost before Judge Peck, filed charges that Judge Sater was a "material witness," and United States Circuit Judge Loyd L. Knapp, directed Judge Sater not to proceed with the hearing of the cases.

Now Judge Sater is making application to Judge Knapp for a hearing, charging that the order for him to proceed, obtained by Ormsby through "false, unfounded and fraudulent" representations.

Judge Sater further enters vigorous denial that he is a material witness in these cases as alleged by Ormsby in his petition to the circuit court, and that the application had been made to him by Ormsby to cause certain facts to be entered in the records of the court. He declares emphatically he knows none of the parties in these cases, knows nothing of the issues, has no interest of any kind and could not

LEGISLATURE WILL POSTPONE FINAL ADJOURNMENT

Columbus, O., Feb. 11.—Indications are that the state legislature, when it reconvenes here late today, will postpone final adjournment.

Some bills were passed hurriedly in the final sessions of the legislature last week. Many minor defects and several unsatisfactory amendments to important bills have been discovered. As a consequence it may take the legislators several days to eliminate these mistakes before a final adjournment is made.

There is some talk also that a ten day recess may be taken so as to give the Republicans opportunity to re-pass any measure which Governor Cox may veto.

It is claimed by some of the house members that sufficient funds have not been appropriated to meet the salary increases granted to state employees and that additional revenue producing measures must be enacted.

RAILROAD STRIKE NOW HINGES ON HINES' DECISION

Will Involve Nearly 2,000,000 Workers of Country.

WANT EARLY REPLY

President Lee Puts Issue Squarely Up to Director.

Director General Informed by President Lee That the Trainmen Are Ready to Strike Unless a Satisfactory Settlement is Reached—Hines' Answer Will Determine Outcome of Critical Situation.

Washington, Feb. 11.—Conferences today between Director General Hines and leaders of railroad workers' unions may determine the outcome of a critical situation with respect to the wage demands of upwards of 2,000,000 employees.

Officials of the unions submitted to the director general a new statement which served to open up all important questions on which the two sides were at variance.

Meanwhile W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, was pressing Mr. Hines for an answer to the demands of his individual organization and insisting the trainmen were ready to strike unless a satisfactory settlement was reached. Railroad administration officials also received informal notice that they must contend with a strike called by the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Shop Laborers.

Lee said he had given the railroad administration the required 30 days' notice of intention to cancel the present wage contract of Feb. 23. The strike vote taken under his instructions was said to show a large majority of the trainmen favorable to a strike.

This last phase of the situation has given railroad administration officials concern because, should the trainmen walk out, an almost complete tieup of traffic could be the only result. The thousands of engineers, firemen and conductors could not operate the trains, for in many states they would be forbidden to work under "full crew" laws unless all trainmen required were on duty, it was explained. Union bylaws also prohibit other employees from taking out trains not manned by the regular number of brakemen.

Union officials were not ready to make a statement as to their next step in event Mr. Hines refused to meet their demands. It was suggested they might appeal again to President Wilson, who has been informed of the negotiations.

Detroit, Feb. 11.—Allen E. Barker, grand president of the brotherhood of maintenance of way employees declared today that his organization would "pay no attention" to a New York injunction issued by any federal judge in this country to prevent the strike of 300,000 of his followers on February 17.

"The government when it sues the purpose of the fellows on the 'H.M.' he declared, 'tells us the war is over and the Lever act does not apply and also when it sues their purpose tells us the war is not over and the Lever act is effective. No injunction will deter us. The strike order has been issued and it cannot be recalled.'

"They will need a lot of jails," Barker declared, commenting on the report from Kansas that officials there would invoke the new industrial relations law against members of the brotherhood in that state who went on strike.

"We shall disregard any power that tells us we are not free to strike," he added.

Barker said that his organization would not be influenced by any action taken by any of the other railroad organizations in their controversy with the railroad administration over wage demands.

Edison Celebrates 73d Birthday

Orange, N. J., Feb. 11.—Thousands of messages are pouring in congratulating Thomas A. Edison, the electrical wizard, who celebrated his seventy-third birthday today. True to his traditions, Mr. Edison had intended to spend the day at hard work in his laboratory but when he learned of the preparations that had been made to observe the day he decided to take a few hours off. The whole city is decorated in honor of the occasion. Tonight Mr. Edison will attend a dance of the "Thomas A. Edison association."

A loss, which is expected to amount to several thousand dollars, but which is fully covered by insurance, was entailed at the plant of the Hooven & Allison cordage company in this city Tuesday evening, when a frame ware house and carding room connected with the Ohio mill caught on fire.

The loss was confined principally to the baled sisal fibre contained in the room, which is believed to have been ignited by a spark from one of the carding machines which are operated in the room. In the neighborhood of 40,000 or 50,000 bales of sisal fibre

Greatest Conspiracy in History of the Street Say Police.

THREE UNDER ARREST

Theft of $5,000,000 In Securities Attempted It is Alleged.

New York, Feb. 11.—With three met under arrest, the police are searching today for a fourth suspect to clear up what they believe may prove the greatest conspiracy in the history of Wall street for the theft of bonds and stocks from brokerage firms.

Wall street messenger boys, it was said, were to be used as tools in the theft of $5,000,000 worth of securities which were to be smuggled into Canada and sold through "fences."

Those under arrest are: Irving Gluck, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y.; Joseph Gluck, a brother, and Edward J. Furey.

They are being held on the specific charge of stealing $2,500,000 worth of securities from Garish and Company at 115 Broadway. Irving Gluck who was a Wall street messenger, is said to have confessed to the police that he was involved in the theft of $2,000,000 worth of securities in the past six months. He is alleged to have declared that practically all of them were sold through his brother to David W. Sullivan and Company of 10 Wall street.

The securities which the Gluck brothers and Furey are accused of stealing were taken from the pocket of Murray Fox, a messenger employed by Parish and Company. Upon being questioned, Fox was said to have told the police that Furey, who is well known in the "White Light" district had revealed to him the plans for the big coup. After the theft of the bonds the conspirators were to go to Toronto, Canada. In the meantime however, some of the messenger boys approached "got cold feet," disarranging the plans of the leaders.

BITTER HATRED IS NOW PART OF TRIAL OF SEN. NEWBERRY

Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 11.—Bitter hatreds hidden until now under the camouflage of pleasant smiles have broken out here in the Newberry trial colony as a result of the testimony given yesterday by Former Governor Chase S. Osborne. One by one he assailed the Newberry campaign managers, attacking in his testimony especially those who formerly followed his flag and who deserted to the Newberry colors under the stress of the hottest campaign in the history of Michigan.

The cross examination of the ex-governor may be postponed for several days at least, until Mark T. McKee and Miller Oakman, defendants particularly singled out by Osborne, are well enough to resume their places in the courtroom. Both are influenza victims.

CONFESSION OF MAN ACCUSED OF I. W. W. RIOTS IS READ

Montesano, Wash., Feb. 11.—The confession of Loren Roberts, one of the eleven alleged I. W. W. on trial here for the murder of Lieut. Warren G. Grimm, American legion member, who was killed at Centralia, during the armistice day parade, is expected to be read in court here today.

Roberts' confession may prove the pivot on which the testimony of the ten other prisoners will turn. Roberts will be later held for observation as to his sanity if the court approves the plea of the defense.

The courtroom today presented the appearance of an arsenal. All the weapons used in the street fighting are on exhibition.

BOLSHEVISM SPREADS IN MIDDLE EUROPE

In middle Europe the treaty of Versailles is called a "tragedy of ignorance," because it has split up the strong states into small nationalities which are continually in friction with each other and therefore do not work and produce. This division and idleness is encouraging the westward advance of Bolshevism by propaganda, and fears are expressed that it will enter the states printed above in black without firing a shot.

COURT PROCEEDINGS TIED UP PENDING DECISION

MARTIAL LAW ENDS AS MAN IS LED AWAY

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 11.—William Lockett, condemned murderer of Geneva Hardaman, today was safely behind the bars of Eddyville penitentiary. Late last night Lockett was led to a waiting special train on which were 400 soldiers with machine guns and hand grenades and placed in an especially prepared compartment, manacled and guarded by a hundred men.

The removal of Lockett was accomplished without a flurry of excitement. The authorities guarded their movements with the utmost caution. Telegraph and telephone lines were closed to public use preventing the sending of news of his departure to the outside world.

But a few persons were in the public square when a cordon of fifty veterans of the Argonne filed out of the courthouse door. In their center was the prisoner, his head bent low to escape notice.

With the departure of more than half of the federal troops stationed here, the end of martial law is now only a matter of hours. The inquest into the deaths of the five victims of the riot will be held Friday. The funerals of three of the victims were held today.

It was revealed here today following the departure of Lockett that soldiers of the first division guarding him were offered a reward of $1,000 to kill him.

A heavy guard is being maintained about the home of County Judge F. A. Bullock, who is charged by the people here with having fired on the members of the mob. Judge Bullock denies the charge.

ARCHER STANDS LOSS

$10,000 Liberty Bond Missing at the Ohio State Treasury.

Columbus, Feb. 11.—The disappearance of a $10,000 Liberty bond belonging to the workmen's compensation fund from the vault of the state treasury last October was made public in a formal report made by Auditor of State A. V. Donahy to Governor Cox and in a statement by R. W. Archer, treasurer of state, who has announced he will make good the loss. While making a finding against the state treasurer for recovery on the bonds, Auditor Donahy absolves the treasurer from any moral responsibility, agreeing with Archer that its loss was probably due to inadequacy of the facilities for handling the vast volume of securities under present arrangements in the treasurer's office.

"The only theory I can advance for the disappearance of the bond," said Archer, "is that in the handling of the multitude of securities it is possible and quite probable that the bond, which was inclosed in an ordinary packet, was misplaced, with other papers, and has been lost or destroyed."

LEGISLATURE WILL POSTPONE FINAL ADJOURNMENT

Columbus, O., Feb. 11.—Indications are that the state legislature, when it reconvenes here late today, will postpone final adjournment.

Some bills were passed hurriedly in the final sessions of the legislature last week. Many minor defects and several unsatisfactory amendments to important bills have been discovered. As a consequence it may take the legislators several days to eliminate these mistakes before a final adjournment is made.

There is some talk also that a ten day recess may be taken so as to give the Republicans opportunity to pass any measure which Governor Cox may veto.

It is claimed by some of the house members that sufficient funds have not been appropriated to meet the salary increases granted to state employees and that additional revenue producing measures must be enacted.

OHIO HAPPENINGS

Town to Be Moved.

Dayton, O., Feb. 11.—The task of transferring an old town to a new site will begin shortly when a caravan of flour mills, saw mills, bank buildings, factories and residences start on great wheels from the present site of the town of Osborn to the new site two miles east and along the pike. Land upon which the town now stands was condemned to make way for the conservancy project.

Ormsby-Finney Case Now Before U. S. District Court.

SATER TAKES HAND

Sensational Relations Develop in Hearing at Cincinnati.

Actions on the part of George K. Ormsby, Cincinnati attorney, former Xenian, and now on parole from St. Elizabeth's hospital for the insane at Washington, has been instrumental in completely tying up the United States District court, at Cincinnati, in connection with his case against Joseph A. Finney, et al., attorney of this city, and administrator of Ormsby estate.

The case began several months ago when Ormsby filed charges to know why J. A. Finney should not appear in court for contempt. When the late Judge Hollister was on the Cincinnati bench, Mr. Finney sent him information concerning Ormsby, showing that he had been in an insane asylum from which he was now out on parole, and which showed that the man was not mentally qualified to appear in court. The jurist ignored the information, however, and let the case go on.

Because the case was now to be heard by United States District Judges, John E. Sater and Judge Peck, Ormsby, wishing to reserve Judge Sater, if the case should be lost before Judge Peck, filed charges that Judge Sater was a "material witness," and United States Circuit Judge Loyel E. Knappen, directed Judge Sater not to proceed with the hearing of the cases.

Now Judge Sater is making application to Judge Knappen for a hearing, charging that the order for him to proceed was obtained by Ormsby through "false, unfounded and fraudulent" representations.

Judge Sater further enters vigorous denial that he is a material witness in these cases as alleged by Ormsby in his petition to the circuit court, and that the application had been made to him by Ormsby to cause certain facts to be entered in the records of the court. He declares emphatically he knows none of the parties in these cases, knows nothing of the issues, has no interest of any kind and could not

Will Involve Nearly 2,000,000 Workers of Country.

WANT EARLY REPLY

President Lee Puts Issue Squarely Up to Director.

Director General Informed by President Lee That the Trainmen Are Ready to Strike Unless a Satisfactory Settlement is Reached—Hines' Answer Will Determine Outcome of Critical Situation.

Washington, Feb. 11.—Conferences today between Director General Hines and leaders of railroad workers' unions may determine the outcome of a critical situation with respect to the wage demands of upwards of 2,000,000 employees.

Officials of the unions submitted to the director general a new statement which served to open up all important questions on which the two sides were at variance.

Meanwhile W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, was pressing Mr. Hines for an answer to the demands of his individual organization and insisting the trainmen were ready to strike unless a satisfactory settlement was reached. Railroad administration officials also received informal notice that they must contend with a strike called by the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Shop Laborers.

Lee said he had given the railroad administration the required 30 days' notice of intention to cancel the present wage contract of Feb. 23. The strike vote taken under his instructions was said to show a large majority of the trainmen favorable to a strike.

This last phase of the situation has given railroad administration officials concern because, should the trainmen walk out, an almost complete tieup of traffic could be the only result. The thousands of engineers, firemen and conductors could not operate the trains, for in many states they would be forbidden to work under "full crew" laws unless all trainmen required were on duty, it was explained. Union bylaws also prohibit other employees from taking out trains not manned by the regular number of brakemen.

Union officials were not ready to make a statement as to their next step in event Mr. Hines refused to meet their demands. It was suggested they might appeal again to President Wilson, who has been informed of the negotiations.

Detroit, Feb. 11.—Allen E. Barker, grand president of the brotherhood of maintenance of way employees declared today that his organization would "pay no attention" to a New York injunction issued by any federal judge in this country to prevent the strike of 300,000 of his followers or February 17.

"The government when it sues the nucleus of the fellows on the 'Hill,' he declared, 'tells us the war is over and the Lever act does not apply and also when it suits their purposes tell us the war is not over and the Lever act is effective. No injunction will deter us. The strike order has been issued and it cannot be recalled.'"

"They will need a lot of jails," Barker declared, commenting on the report from Kansas that officials there would invoke the new industrial relations law against members of the brotherhood in that state who went on strike.

"We shall disregard any power that tells us we are not free to strike," he added.

Barker said that his organization would not be influenced by any action taken by any of the other railroad organizations in their controversy with the railroad administration over wage demands.

The whole city is decorated in honor of the occasion. Tonight Mr. Edison will attend a banquet of the "Thomas A. Edison association."

Daddy loved him a bit, then said: "Here's a quarter; go buy a ball and play, then maybe you'll forget about the aching tooth." COURT PROCEEDINGS possibly be a material witness. Sensation revelations are made by Judge Slater in connection with certain letters alleged to have been written by Ormsby to Attorney Lowry F. Sater, Columbus, a nephew of Judge Sater. These letters were dated Jan. 23 and Jan. 25, suggesting to Lowry F. Sater the "filing of a claim" that Judge Sater is a material witness, and asking "can you not get him to withdraw on the ground he is or may be a material witness?"

Evidence of the character of the claim that Judge Sater is or could be a material witness, further appears, Judge Sater says, in the following extract from the letter of Jan. 23:

"And should Judge Peck not approve (said cases) I would be in a position to ask for a rehearing before Judge Sater. All this plan is spoiled if Judge Sater insists on hearing these cases when Judge Peck has expressed a willingness to hear them. I earnestly ask that Judge Sater be held in reserve for Tuit. Wickersham and my humble self. He will then be of immeasurable service, if I do not get the judgment I expect from Judge Peck. Can you not persuade him to resign these cases to Judge Peck? Cannot some Columbus lawyers engage him with business next Friday?"

Judge Sater then goes on to say he had no information of these letters until Feb. 1.

The order upon which Judge Sater seeks a hearing was entered by Judge Knappen Jan. 27, upon the application of Ormsby. The application was in connection with his efforts to prevent the transfer of the cases to the docket of the Federal court at Dayton, over which Judge Sater presides by mutual arrangement with Judge Peck. The transfer was made with a number of other cases on the docket of the Cincinnati court for the convenience of litigants residing in the eight counties of the Dayton district, in one of which Xenia is located.

Since securing the order temporarily directing Judge Sater not to hear these cases Ormsby has sought by petition in mandamus filed in the Appellate Court, to compel Judge Peck to hear these cases.

Hearing on the application of Ormsby to bar Judge Sater from hearing his cases on the mandamus proceedings against Judge Peck probably will be ordered by Circuit Judge Knappen within the next few days.

Xenia people who know Ormsby are interested in the fight he is making in court.

EMPLOYEES MEETING GOOD THING SAYS C. OF C. SPEAKER

The value of employees conferences in exchanging ideas and developing a better feeling was explained by H. S. Ames, merchandise manager of the Rike Kumler Company of Dayton, who spoke on the subject of the 'Retail Business Outlook for the New Year' at the noon luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday.

Mr. Ames explained the worth of a policy in a retail store where the employers and employees get together every week for open discussion, interchange ideas and thereby inspire a friendly feeling that works wonders in the store family. He explained the retail business boom that is now on, saying that of eighteen large stores in different cities in the United States the increase in business for the month of January alone was from 10 to 71 per cent. The store which had the 71 per cent increase used the research plan in keeping tabs on what was doing and it was also a store that had bought wisely.

11 HENS IDLE; NOW LAY 221 EGGS A MONTH

Mrs. Young Almost Gave Up Raising Chickens. Then She Tried This Plan.

"When I accepted your offer and tried Don Sung, I had been getting 1 or 2 eggs every other day. The next month, using 50 cents worth of Don Sung, my 11 hens laid 224 eggs. I almost gave up raising chickens, but now I have decided to raise as many as I can."—Mrs. F. C. Young, Bellefonte, Pa.

Feed is too expensive to waste on idle hens. You can easily start your hens laying and keep them laying over in coldest winter. To prove it, all you need do is accept our offer, as Mrs. Young did.

Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, tell us and your money will be promptly refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) works directly on the egg-laying organs, and is also a splendid tonic. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health, makes her more active in any weather, and starts her laying.

Try Don Sung for 30 days and if it doesn't get you the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather, your money will be refunded by return mail. Get Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer, or send 50 cents for a package by mail prepaid. Burdett-Dugger Co., 234 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

HUSBAND SEES CHANGE MADE BY VOLA-TONIC

Remarks About Big Improvement in Health Wife Has Gained Recently.

Since Mrs. Alice Vincent, 1040 Free man avenue, Cincinnati, O., took Volatonic "Builder of Strength," her health has improved so much that her husband can see a big difference in her.

"Just the other day, Mr. Vincent remarked about how much more cheerful and energetic I am now," Mrs. Vincent said.

"Last winter I had an attack of influenza and when I got over it my strength seemed to be gone completely. If I tried to do a little work I'd feel weak for days afterward. I felt tired, nervous and irritable all the time.

"My appetite was fairly good but I could eat only a very little at one time because of gas that always formed on my stomach and caused bloating. I was badly troubled with constipation and indigestion also.

"My circulation was very poor, too and I felt draggy and tired all over. I have taken six bottles of Volatonic and my health has improved greatly. My nerves are stronger and in fine condition and my stomach is much improved. I'm not troubled at all with indigestion now and the constipation has disappeared also.

"Vola-Tonic improved my circulation, and has made me stronger and healthier all over."

Vola-Tonic "Builder of Strength," brings a good appetite, good digestion, good blood and good nerves, and health and strength all over.

Vola-Tonic is being specially introduced in Xenia at Sayre & Hemphill's.

SEVERE RAINS IN FLORIDA STOP PARTIES

Five days of rain all over Florida, up to Monday, Feb. 2nd, caused ocean front towns unprecedented floods. At Daytona, 14 inches of water fell in the five days, and some of the lower parts of the city were inundated to the depth of three feet. On Sabbath, Feb. 1st, services were suspended in some of the Triple City churches. The following item from the Daytona Journal will interest a number of Xenia people, Mrs. Drew being a sister of Miss Letitia Dillencourt of this city:

"The reception planned for Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Drew, of Medina, Ohio, announced for Monday evening, was necessarily called off on Sunday, not only because of the storm, but because Mr. Drew was suffering from a severe cold and was unable to meet the arrangements made for him by his friends."

COURT PROCEEDINGS

possibly be a material witness.

Sensation revelations are made by Judge Slater in connection with certain letters alleged to have been written by Ormsby to Attorney Lowry F. Sater, Columbus, a nephew of Judge Sater. These letters were dated Jan. 23 and Jan. 25, suggesting to Lowry F. Sater the "filing of a claim that Judge Sater is a material witness."

Evidence of the character of the claim that Judge Sater is or could be a material witness, further appears, Judge Sater says, in the following extract from the letter of Jan. 23:

"And should Judge Peck not approve (said cases) I would be in a position to ask for a rehearing before Judge Sater. All this plan is spoiled if Judge Sater insists on hearing these cases when Judge Peck has expressed a willingness to hear them. I earnestly ask that Judge Sater be held in reserve for Judge Peck and my humble self. He will then be of immeasurable service, if I do not get the judgment I expect from Judge Peck. Can you not persuade him to resign these cases to Judge Peck? Cannot some Columbus lawyers engage him with business next Friday?"

Judge Sater then goes on to say he had no information of these letters until Feb. 1.

The order upon which Judge Sater seeks a hearing was entered by Judge Knappen Jan. 27, upon the application of Ormsby. The application was in connection with his efforts to prevent the transfer of the cases to the docket of the Federal court at Dayton, over which Judge Sater presides by mutual arrangement with Judge Peck. The transfer was made with a number of other cases on the docket of the Cincinnati court, for the convenience of litigants residing in the eight counties of the Dayton district, in one of which Xenia is located.

Since securing the order temporarily directing Judge Sater not to hear these cases Ormsby has sought by petition in mandamus filed in the Appellate Court, to compel Judge Peck to hear these cases.

Hearing on the application of Ormsby to bar Judge Sater from hearing his cases on the mandamus proceedings against Judge Peck probably will be ordered by Circuit Judge Knappen within the next few days.

Xenia people who know Ormsby are interested in the fight he is making in courts.

EMPLOYEES MEETING GOOD THING SAYS C. OF C. SPEAKER

The value of employees conferences in exchanging ideas and developing a better feeling was explained by H. S. Ames, merchandise manager of the Rike Kurler Company of Dayton, who spoke on the subject of the "Retail Business Outlook for the New Year" at the noon luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday.

Mr. Ames explained the worth of a policy in a retail store where the employers and employees get together every week for open discussion, interchange ideas and thereby inspire a friendly feeling that works wonders in the store family. He explained the retail business boom that is now on, saying that of eighteen large stores in different cities in the United States the increase in business for the month of January alone was from 10 to 71 per cent. The store which had the 71 per cent increase used the research plan in keeping tabs on what it was doing and it was also a store that had bought wisely.

FORMER SHERIFF INDORSES TANLAC

"Money Couldn't Buy The Good It Did Me," Says Hon. A. R. Anderson.

"Money could not buy the good Tanlac has done me, and I gladly recommend it for what it has done in my case," said Hon. Archie R. Anderson, of Houston, Texas, ex-sheriff of Harris county recently.

Mr. Anderson is unquestionably, not only one of the best known, but one of the most popular men who ever held public office in the state of Texas. After serving as Deputy Sheriff of Harris county for twelve years, Mr. Anderson was elected Chief of Police of the city of Houston. He had occupied this office only a short time when the Sheriff of Harris county died. Mr. Anderson's friends persuaded him to make the race for the unexpired term elected. He was honored with reelection seven different times and served the people in this important office for fifteen consecutive years. Then Mr. Anderson declined reelection and retired to private life. He cast his lot among the people of Houston and is a large property owner and foremost citizen of that interesting and prosperous city.

"I was in a run-down condition," continued Mr. Anderson, "and had no appetite at all. I could hardly sleep at night and never felt like getting up in the mornings. I was so tired. I had the worst form of indigestion, suffered all the time from gas on my stomach and was continually belching up undigested food. I had to take my coffee without sugar, as when I drank it with sugar, I would just belch for hours. I would bloat and swell up like I was poisoned and suffered with neuralgic pains of the worst sort, and nothing seemed to help me only in a temporary way. I just can't tell you how I did suffer for the past four years and up to the time I began taking Tanlac, a few weeks ago.

"When I read the testimonials of some who had been relieved of troubles like mine, I just felt like I couldn't make a mistake by taking Tanlac and it has done even more for me than I had expected. I began to feel better after taking my first bottle and have just now started on my third and I'm a different man already. I sleep like a log now and eat just any and everything I want without the slightest discomfort afterwards. I am glad to endorse Tanlac because it does the work and I'm telling all my friends just what I'm telling you. I never felt better in my life than I do since taking Tanlac. I am willing for you to publish my statement and let every suffering person who may wish, benefit by my experience with this great medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Xenia by Sayre & Hemphill.

OHIO'S PHENOMENAL MOTOR INCREASE IS WELL DISTRIBUTED

Ohio's Auto Registration by Counties.

The man who said the automobile was a fad and that the boom would soon be over will feel like eating his words when he beholds Ohio's registration figures for the past year. The total registrations reached 540,294, according to statistics from the office of Secretary of State Harry C. Smith. These were divided as follows: Passenger and commercial cars, 511,300; motorcycles, 20,444; electric, 4,925; and dealers, 3,625. This is an increase of more than 100,000 over the year preceding, the biggest increase that Ohio has ever known.

Prosperity in city and in country, extension of the highway system and bettered facilities for the use of motor cars, are responsible for Ohio's attaining this eminence, in the opinion of Fred H. Caley, secretary of the Ohio State Automobile Association.

The increase is well distributed over the state, according to the figures by counties.

A Cold Blooded Drama

Act one; Smith, a prominent druggist steps out of his steam heated home into a 60 mile hurricane, "looks like good cough syrup weather" he remarks to himself as he turns up the collar of his light weight overcoat. Suddenly a wild chill cuts like a knife into his very being—that night Smith leaves the store early with a bottle of his own medicine

Act two; Smith back on the job back of the counter—his cold has vanished so has his cold blooded coat. Customer enters and between coughs calls for quinine. "Take one every two hours until relieved," advised Smith, "and on your way up town better stop into The Criterion and buy yourself a heavy ulster—that's how I cured mine."

FORMER SHERIFF INDORSES TANLAC

"Money Couldn't Buy The Good It Did Me," Says Hon. A. R. Anderson.

"Money could not buy the good Tanlac has done me, and I gladly recommend it for what it has done in my case," said Hon. Archie R. Anderson, of Houston, Texas, ex-sheriff of Harris county recently.

Mr. Anderson is unquestionably, not only one of the best known, but one of the most popular men who ever held public office in the state of Texas. After serving as Deputy Sheriff of Harris county for twelve years, Mr. Anderson was elected Chief of Police of the city of Houston. He had occupied this office only a short time when the Sheriff of Harris county died. Mr. Anderson's friends persuaded him to make the race for the unexpired term elected. He was honored with re-election seven different times and served the people in this important office for fifteen consecutive years. Then Mr. Anderson declined reelection and retired to private life. He cast his lot among the people of Houston and is a large property owner and foremost citizen of that interesting and prosperous city.

"I was in a run-down condition," continued Mr. Anderson, "and had no appetite at all. I could hardly sleep at night and never felt like getting up in the mornings. I was so tired. I had the worst form of indigestion, suffered all the time from gas on my stomach and was continually belching up undigested food. I had to take my coffee without sugar, as when I drank it with sugar, I would just belch for hours. I would bloat and swell up like I was poisoned and suffered with neuralgic pains of the worst sort, and nothing seemed to help me only in a temporary way. I just can't tell you how I did suffer for the past four years and up to the time I began taking Tanlac, a few weeks ago.

"When I read the testimonials of some who had been relieved of troubles like mine I just felt like I couldn't make a mistake by taking Tanlac and it has done even more for me than I had expected. I began to feel better after taking my first bottle and have just now started on my third and I'm a different man already. I sleep like a log now and eat just any and everything I want without the slightest discomfort afterwards. I am glad to endorse Tanlac because it does the work and I'm telling all my friends just what I'm telling you. I never felt better in my life than I do since taking Tanlac. I am willing for you to publish my statement and let every suffering person who may wish benefit by my experience with this great medicine."

OHIO'S PHENOMENAL MOTOR INCREASE IS WELL DISTRIBUTED

Ohio's Auto Registration by Counties.

The man who said the automobile was a fad and that the boom would soon be over will feel like eating his words when he beholds Ohio's registration figures for the past year.

The total registrations reached 540,294, according to statistics from the office of Secretary of State Ilar-vey C. Smith. These were divided as follows: Passenger and commercial cars, 511,300; motorcycles, 20,444; electric, 4,925; and dealers, 3,625. This is an increase of more than 100,000 over the year preceding, the biggest increase that Ohio has ever known.

Prosperity in city and in country, extension of the highway system and better facilities for the use of motor cars, are responsible for Ohio's attaining this eminence, in the opinion of Fred H. Caley, secretary of the Ohio State Automobile Association.

The increase is well distributed over the state, according to the figures by counties.

HOW MEN'S UNBRIDLED PASSIONS LEAD THEM TO SIN AND DEATH.

Never was the above heading better illustrated than by the tragic affair which has just taken place at Lexington, Kentucky. One man's awful sin has led to the death of four men and the wounding of nearly a dozen others. And the main culprit remains yet to forfeit his worthless life in the electric chair. Giving way to his unbridled passion, he had assaulted a little ten year old girl and then murdered her.

This was bad enough to stain the annals of the commonwealth of Kentucky, but a great body of men, forgetting that they were exhibiting the very same spirit that they were condemning, assembled with the avowed purpose of taking the law in their own hands by lynching the culprit, but many of them lost their lives in their mob-spirit effort.

The legal authorities had already given prompt effect to the lawful proceedings in the case—had arrested and tried the culprit, and had sentenced him to death in the electric chair. Having thus performed their duty, they were determined that the regular process for its execution should be carried out. So the great mob that was assaulting the court house in its effort to secure the prisoner to lynch him, was resisted, and every effort made to persuade the mob to desist in its mad purpose.

But nobody ever heard of a mob having any sense, and this one was no exception. Warned over and over again that their course would result in death, they still persisted in their mad purpose. As a last resort to save their prisoner, the authorities had to act. The first shots were in the air, as warning, but being unheeded, reluctantly the soldiers had to do their duty, and many of the mob fell dead and wounded.

Regrettable as it is that so many lives should have been sacrificed, and so many wounded be left to suffer, the repulse of the mob was justified. The law must be enforced. The processes for the administration of justice must be respected.

There can be no approval of the mob, no sympathy with the spirit that moved it. Its leaders should be brought to face the justice they defied and sought to frustrate.

For the officials who stood bravely to their duty, and with patience, there must be commendation. For the soldiers who executed the orders given to them, after all persuasion had been shown to be ineffective, in which they stayed the wave of lawlessness, there can be nothing but approval. Law must be maintained, else the whole fabric of our institutions is baseless—as if built on sand.

The law is the standard and guardian of our liberty; it circumscribes and defends it; to imagine liberty without law, is to imagine every man with his sword in his hand to destroy him who is weaker than himself, and that would not be a pleasant prospect.

The unrestrained passion of this vile criminal led him to do that which he now deprecates. He says: "I am sorry that I did it. I was sorry the minute after the deed, and I don't know why I did it. I would give anything to bring the little girl back to life and undo the wrongs I have done."

And it was unrestrained passion that started and stimulated the mob which cost many of them their lives. Passion may not unfrequently be termed the mob of the man that commits a riot on his reason. The passionate mob is like men standing on their heads; they see everything the wrong way.

The passions are unruly cattle, and therefore you must keep them chained, and under the government of religion and reason. If thus kept under discipline, they are useful servants, but if you let them loose and give them their own way they will be your masters, and unruly masters at that, and carry you, like wild and unbridled horses, into a thousand mischiefs and sins which life may not be long enough to repent of—to say nothing of public disturbances and disorders and loss of life, like that at Lexington.

It was unrestrained passion that led the miserable recreant to commit the vile, unnatural deed he did; and it was unrestrained passion that led the mob, which resulted in death and suffering to so many.

The passions are like fire, useful in a thousand ways, and dangerous in only one when unrestrained. Chastise your passions that they may not chastise you.

HUMANE PRISON DISCIPLINE.

It seems quite likely that if one penetrated the remote parts of the least civilized lands one would find practiced today just about all the forms of cruelty and inhumanity which have ever existed. It is not pleasant, however, to realize that a good deal of inhuman treatment is still legally accorded to persons within our own territory.

The Atlanta Humane Society has been investigating the use of flogging as a disciplinary measure among city and state prisoners in Georgia. As a result of its findings, the Humane Society has aroused the prison committee of the Atlanta City Council and the State Board of Public Welfare to take immediate action to do away with this evil. An order has been issued by the council to stop flogging at the city stockade pending a thorough investigation. The "bucking chair," in which it is alleged prisoners are strapped to receive their flogging, has also come under general condemnation.

Any one who is shocked at the fact that within recent years men and women have been flogged in Georgia prisons would do well to inquire into local prison regulations to see whether his own city, country and state are wholly free from cruel practices.

No sane citizen would advocate condoning crime or coddling criminals. But the day has passed in which enlightened men and women favor brutal and inhuman treatment of such persons. Cruelty and inhumanity do not compensate society for the wrong previously done by the criminal. Neither do they cause the prisoner to repent of his crime and seek to atone for his wrong doing. They are far more likely to instill a feeling of revenge, and to increase rather than to cure viciousness. The nearer we come to abolishing such evil and inhuman practices, the nearer we shall come to finding the real and lasting means of remaking wrong doers into good citizens and of protecting society from incorrigible criminals.

Our enthusiasm received a severe set-back the other evening when gazing over the shoulder of friend wife in her daily perusal of the beauty hints, we casually remarked after seeing the picture of the authoress that it was odd that she didn't practice what she preached, and received the reply that there are some things men don't understand, and we guess she is right.

Lord Torquay, the English diplomat, the "star," and announced his intention of asking the lady to marry him the following night.

"And you think she will say 'yes'?" asked the father, amiably.

"Oh, I don't know," said the love-sick youth. "She's so beautiful and fascinating I feel I can never hope to win her love!"

"Oh, rot!" said the father, encouragingly. "Lots of men have succeeded. Why shouldn't you?"

An untraveled countryman once treated himself to a trip to London. There for the first time in his life he saw a schoolgirl go through her gymnastic exercises for the amusement of the little ones with whom she was playing.

After gazing at her with looks of interest and compassion for some time, he asked a boy near by if she had fits.

"No," replied the boy; "them's gymnastics."

"Ah, how sad," said the man. "How long's she had 'em'?"

An insurance man tells this one: "Not long ago there rushed into one of our offices in the South a very excited woman; so excited, in fact, that she was out of breath and could speak only with difficulty."

"What's the trouble?" asked one of the clerks.

"I want a policy at once—at once," exclaimed the woman, when she had recovered sufficiently to articulate. "Our home is on fire."

"I think I'll see a lawyer today," said Hazel.

"Why?" asked Edith.

"Bert proposed to me on Sunday, and I want to see if it's legal."

APPEAL DECISION ON INHERITANCE TAX FOR CHURCHES

An appeal was taken to common pleas court from the decision of Probate Judge J. C. Marshall in the matter of exceptions to the determination of the inheritance tax in the estate of Dennis W. Cosley as it relates to the legacies of the Reformed and the First Methodist Episcopal churches. This city.

The case is an interesting one since there is no previous decision in Ohio courts affecting such a question.

Mr. Cosley provided for certain legacies for the two churches, all of which, with the exception of ten per cent he directed should be used to charity. The ten per cent is to be used for church maintenance. The amount of the legacies in each case is $75,194.11. Judge Marshall, in determining the inheritance tax on the estate, held that the ten per cent, which the testator stipulated should be used for church maintenance and which amounts to $751.94 in the case of each church, was subject to the inheritance tax, amounting to $52.63.

Attorney W. L. Miller, representing the two churches, filed exceptions to the determination of tax and Judge Marshall refused to reverse his own action in fixing the tax, holding that the ten per cent was taxable as it was not to be used for a charitable purpose.

The Fiftieth Anniversary

Just fifty years ago this winter Dr. Pierce gave to the world his famous "Favorite Prescription" for the distressing weaknesses and complaints of women. For many years he had been in the active practice of medicine and his specialty was the diseases of women. Later he desired to give this to the public, and he received a trade-mark protection from the United States patent office for this medicine which is an herbal, "temperance" prescription with all the ingredients printed on the bottle wrapper. In his every day practice in the early days he also used a tonic and alternative for the blood, which was so universally beneficial that he determined to place this medicine in the drug stores of the United States, where it could be readily procured by the public. This he called his "Golden Medical Discovery," which he had prescribed many years for the stomach, liver and blood. Both these medicines met with instant success, and during the past half century have sold in greater quantities than any other proprietary medicines. Neither of Dr. Pierce's medicines contains alcohol and both are herbal extracts of native medicinal plants. For the past fifty years forty-eight million bottles have been used by the American public, and they are today the standard tonics for men and women. They are now put up in tablet as well as liquid form, and sold by every druggist in the land. A trial package can be obtained by sending 10 cents to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y. THE SITUATION IS VIEWED WITH ALARM

The car owner should form a weekly habit of wiping the dust carefully from these parts of the car. While doing this it is a good plan to inspect the cable connections. Vibration often loosens it and the poor contact results in a loss of light and a waste of current.

A break in a fuel line is discovered when you least expect it and usually when the car is far from a garage. The fuel line, being usually hidden in forgotten places, it is the usual motorist's way to forget that which is hidden or which he does not move. The fuel line may be rubbing against some metal part, in which case it should be made tight. If you doubt the joint, cover a portion of the tube with cloth, or perhaps, rubber tubing.

Sometimes a small fabric break that cannot be located causes the tube to be punctured. These small breaks may be located in this manner. Mark the position of the valve on the casing before removing the tube. Then remove the tube, place the valve at the mark and measure with the tube around the tire. Thus the puncture in the tube locates the break in the fabric.

HOW MEN'S UNBRIDLED PASSIONS LEAD THEM TO SIN AND DEATH.

Never was the above heading better illustrated than by the tragic affair which has just taken place at Lexington, Kentucky. One man's awful sin has led to the death of four men and the wounding of nearly a dozen others. And the main culprit remains yet to forfeit his worthless life in the electric chair. Giving way to his unbridled passion, he had assaulted a little ten year old girl and then murdered her.

This was bad enough to stain the annals of the commonwealth of Kentucky, but a great body of men, forgetting that they were exhibiting the very same spirit that they were condemning, assembled with the avowed purpose of taking the law in their own hands by lynching the culprit, but many of them lost their lives in their mob-spirit effort.

The legal authorities had already given prompt effect to the lawful proceedings in the case—had arrested and tried the culprit, and had sentenced him to death in the electric chair. Having thus performed their duty, they were determined that the regular process for its execution should be carried out. So the great mob that was assaulting the court house in its effort to secure the prisoner to lynch him, was resisted, and every effort made to persuade the mob to desist in its mad purpose.

But nobody ever heard of a mob having any sense, and this one was no exception. Warned over and over again that their course would result in death, they still persisted in their mad purpose. As a last resort to save their prisoner, the authorities had to act. The first shots were in the air, as warning, but being unheeded, reluctantly the soldiers had to do their duty, and many of the mob fell dead and wounded.

Regrettable as it is that so many lives should have been sacrificed, and so many wounded be left to suffer, the repulse of the mob was justified. The law must be enforced. The processes for the administration of justice must be respected.

There can be no approval of the mob, no sympathy with the spirit that moved it. Its leaders should be brought to face the justice they defied and sought to frustrate.

For the officials who stood bravely to their duty, and with patience, there must be commendation. For the soldiers who executed the orders given to them, after all persuasion had been shown to be ineffective, in which they stayed the wave of lawlessness, there can be nothing but approval. Law must be maintained, else the whole fabric of our institutions is baseless—as if built on sand.

The law is the standard and guardian of our liberty; it circumscribes and defends it; to imagine liberty without law, is to imagine every man with his sword in his hand to destroy him who is weaker than himself, and that would not be a pleasant prospect.

The unrestrained passion of this vile criminal led him to do that which he now deprecates. He says: "I am sorry that I did it. I was sorry the minute after the deed, and I don't know why I did it. I would give anything to bring the little girl back to life and undo the wrongs I have done."

And it was unrestrained passion that started and stimulated the mob which cost many of them their lives. Passion may not unfrequently be termed the mob of the man that commits a riot on his reason. The passionate mob is like men standing on their heads; they see everything the wrong way.

The passions are unruly cattle, and therefore you must keep them chained, and under the government of religion and reason. If thus kept under discipline, they are useful servants, but if you let them loose and give them their own way they will be your masters, and unruly masters at that, and carry you, like wild and unbridled horses, into a thousand mischiefs and sins which life may not be long enough to repent of—to say nothing of public disturbances and disorders and loss of life, like that at Lexington.

It was unrestrained passion that led the miserable recreant to commit the vile, unnatural deed he did; and it was unrestrained passion that led the mob, which resulted in death and suffering to so many.

The passions are like fire, useful in a thousand ways, and dangerous in only one when unrestrained. Chastise your passions that they may not chastise you.

HUMANE PRISON DISCIPLINE.

It seems quite likely that if one penetrated the remote parts of the least civilized lands one would find practiced today just about all the forms of cruelty and inhumanity which have ever existed. It is not pleasant, however, to realize that a good deal of inhuman treatment is still legally accorded to persons within our own territory.

The Atlanta Humane Society has been investigating the use of flogging as a disciplinary measure among city and state prisoners in Georgia. As a result of its findings, the Humane Society has aroused the prison committee of the Atlanta City Council and the State Board of Public Welfare to take immediate action to do away with this evil. An order has been issued by the council to stop flogging at the city stockade pending a thorough investigation. The "bucking chair," in which it is alleged prisoners are strapped to receive their flogging, has also come under general condemnation.

Any one who is shocked at the fact that within recent years men and women have been flogged in Georgia prisons would do well to inquire into local prison regulations to see whether his own city, country and state are wholly free from cruel practices.

No sane citizen would advocate condoning crime or coddling criminals. But the day has passed in which enlightened men and women favor brutal and inhuman treatment of such persons. Cruelty and inhumanity do not compensate society for the wrong previously done by the criminal. Neither do they cause the prisoner to repent of his crime and seek to atone for his wrong doing. They are far more likely to instill a feeling of revenge, and to increase rather than to cure viciousness. The nearer we come to abolishing such evil and inhuman practices, the nearer we shall come to finding the real and lasting means of remaking wrong doers into good citizens and of protecting society from incorrigible criminals.

Our enthusiasm received a severe set-back the other evening when gazing over the shoulder of friend wife in her daily perusal of the beauty hints, we casually remarked after seeing the picture of the authoress that it was odd that she didn't practice what she preached, and received the reply that there are some things men don't understand, and we guess she is right.

Consular Agent Jenkins facing rearrest seems to have a hard row to hoe but what wouldn't some of our movie actresses give for his publicity.

CHATTER

Lord Tomorrow, having a love with Fluffy Flippin, the famous revue "star," and announced his intention of asking the lady to marry him the following night.

"And you think she will say 'yes'?" asked the father, amiably.

"Oh, I don't know," said the love-sick youth. "She's so beautiful and fascinating I feel I can never hope to win her love."

"Oh, rot!" said the father, encouragingly. "Lots of men have succeeded. Why shouldn't you?"

An untraveled countryman once treated himself to a trip to London. There for the first time in his life he saw a schoolgirl go through her gymnastic exercises for the amusement of the little ones with whom she was playing.

After gazing at her with looks of interest and compassion for some time, he asked a boy near by if she had fits.

"No," replied the boy; "them's gymnastic."

"Ah, how sad," said the man. "How long's she had 'em'?"

An insurance man tells this one: "Not long ago there rushed into one of our offices in the South a very excited woman; so excited, in fact, that she was out of breath and could speak only with difficulty."

"What's the trouble?" asked one of the clerks.

"I want a policy at once—at once," exclaimed the woman, when she had recovered sufficiently to articulate. "Our home is on fire."

"I think I'll see a lawyer today," said Hazel.

"Why?" asked Edith.

"Bert proposed to me on Sunday, and I want to see if it's legal."

APPEAL DECISION ON INHERITANCE TAX FOR CHURCHES

An appeal was taken to common pleas court from the decision of Probate Judge J. C. Marshall in the matter of exceptions to the determination of the inheritance tax in the estate of Dennis W. Cosley as it relates to the legacies of the Reformed and the First Methodist Episcopal churches. This city.

The case is an interesting one since there is no previous decision in Ohio courts affecting such a question.

Mr. Cosley provided for certain legacies for the two churches, all of which, with the exception of ten per cent he directed should be used to charity. The ten per cent is to be used for church maintenance. The amount of the legacies in each case is $7,519.41. Judge Marshall, in determining the inheritance tax on the estate, held that the ten per cent, which the testator stipulated should be used for church maintenance and which amounts to $751.94 in the case of each church, was subject to the inheritance tax, amounting to $52.63.

Attorney W. L. Miller, representing the two churches, filed exceptions to the determination of tax and Judge Marshall refused to reverse his own action in fixing the tax, holding that the ten per cent was taxable as it was not to be used for a charitable purpose.

Declaring that the defendant refused to perform her household duties, frequently remained away from home for long periods, and that she entertained other men in his house during his absence, Edgar McKinney has brought suit for divorce from Annie McKinney, whom he married April 20, 1917. They have one child, Dolores, aged 3 years. F. W. Dunkle, attorney.

EVERYDAY ETIQUETTE

"I have received a wedding invitation from people whom I only slightly know. Shall I have to send a gift?" asked Maud.

"It is never obligatory to send a wedding present. The wedding invitation is suggestive of such gifts, but whether one is invited to the ceremony or not, one is perfectly free to do as they like about sending a gift," said her mother.

The Fiftieth Anniversary

Just fifty years ago this winter Dr. Pierce gave to the world his famous "Favorite Prescription" for the distressing weaknesses and complaints of women. For many years he had been in the active practice of medicine and his specialty was the diseases of women. Later he desired to give this to the public, and he received a trade-mark protection from the United States patent office for this medicine which is an herbal, "temperance" prescription with all the ingredients printed on the bottle wrapper. In his every day practice in the early days he also used a tonic and alternative for the blood, which was so universally beneficial that he determined to place this medicine in the drug stores of the United States, where it could be readily procured by the public. This he called his "Golden Medical Discovery," which he had prescribed many years for the stomach, liver and blood. Both these medicines met with instant success, and during the past half century have sold in greater quantities than any other proprietary medicines. Neither of Dr. Pierce's medicines contains alcohol and both are herbal extracts of native medicinal plants. For the past fifty years forty-eight million bottles have been used by the American public, and they are today the standard tonics for men and women. They are now put up in tablet as well as liquid form, and sold by every druggist in the land. A trial package can be obtained by sending 10 cents to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y. Write Dr. Pierce's if you want free confidential medical advice, or a free booklet on any chronic disease.

THE SITUATION IS VIEWED WITH ALARM

The car owner should form a weekly habit of wiping the dust carefully from these parts of the car. While doing this it is a good plan to inspect the cable connections. Vibration often loosens it and the poor contact results in a loss of light and a waste of current.

A break in a fuel line is discovered when you least expect it and usually when the car is far from a garage. The fuel line, being usually hidden in forgotten places, it is the usual motorists way to forget that which is hidden or which he does not move. The fuel line may be rubbing against some metal part, in which case it should be made tight. If you doubt the joint, cover a portion of the tube with cloth, or perhaps, rubber tubing.

Sometimes a small fabric break that cannot be located causes the tube to be punctured. These small breaks may be located in this manner. Mark the position of the valve on the casing before removing the tube. Then remove the tube, place the valve at the mark and measure with the tube around the tire. Thus the puncture in the tube locates the break in the fabric.

IT FELT LIKE MY BACK WOULD BREAK

Dull, aching pains over kidneys, pains in joints and muscles made life miserable for this Canton man.

The great root and herb remedy Drecto was quick in wiping away all his troubles.

"I've stayed on my job many a time with my back aching like it would break," said Mr. Clark Turner, a bricklayer who lives at 1001 Lawrence Road, Canton, O.

"I think my kidneys were at fault, but no medicine I ever took helped me much. Every turn or movement gave me pain, and bending over or lifting anything heavy was specially painful.

"I also had a bad case of stomach trouble. After eating I'd have a full, heavy feeling and would belch gas. My bowels were constipated and my liver lazy, which gave me a tired, dull feeling every morning, making me grouchy. I was often dizzy and could see spots dancing before my eyes. My tongue was coated and breath foul.

"After taking Drecto I am happy to report a great change in my feelings. I can eat anything I want with no fear of gas or bloating as my stomach digests anything perfectly. I know my liver has been cleaned off thoroughly for those headaches, dizzy spells, tired, dull, grouchy feeling of mornings have gone, and I get up fresh and full of energy, ready for big work. The backache has been entirely relieved and the soreness in the joints and muscles gone. I believe in Drecto very strong, and have induced several friends to take it on account of what it did for me."

All good druggists sell Drecto and it is highly recommended in this city by Dr. Robert L. Lee.

AND finally Brunswick Records—artistic companions of Brunswick Phonographs. These records are made under the direction of great interpreters—men who have the power and faculty of developing musical selections as they would be played by the composers.

Just as there are directors for the opera, the stage, the orchestra, we now have directors for records.

This means that each Brunswick Record is not only the work of some accomplished artist, but is accompanied by the shadings of a renowned director.

This is why Brunswick Records rise above the qualities most records have in common. Brunswicks are more than title and artist. They bear the impress of some guiding hand. One who knows how to bring out the inherent qualities, the hidden beauty, the magnetic personality, the more spiritual intuitions of the composers.

Ask to hear these records. Made by the House of Brunswick—a name renowned in the world of music. Compare Brunswick Records with others. Be their sole judge! Look for something entirely different. Something sweeter, richer, truer! You'll find it in full measure in this new Brunswick disc!

The Velvet tin is twice as big as shown here

There's a World of Solid Comfort In the Rich, Red Tin

YES, sir, we mean that same warm red and gold tin that smiles a welcoming "Howdy" to you in every tobacco store. Know what those colors mean?

The red is for the friendly warmth, the mellow cheeriness, that Velvet puts into your old pipe. And the gold is where the Kentucky sunshine, that ripens good old Velvet, has just sort of soaked through.

Remember what Velvet Joe said about it?

"You've met canned meat and canned music. Ever see any tinned sunshine? Well, look into any Velvet tin."

And think this over:

We don't have to hide Velvet's taste or smell with a lot of this, that and the other thing. Because Velvet has naturally what pipe smokers want—real simple pure tobacco taste and fragrance. It's just good, honest Kentucky leaf, made still more friendly and mellow by two years' ageing in wooden hogsheads. Just good tobacco. That's all. But it's mighty near enough for the man who wants a pipeful of tobacco and not a box of bon bons.

The picture of a pipe on the tin needn't keep you from rolling a jim-dandy cigarette with Velvet.

How's the velvet holding out in your old red tin?

The Jamestown girls well defended their record, by defeating the Academy team, the score being 21 to 2, while the Academy boys played a fast and clean game and at no stage were they in danger of being defeated by Jamestown. The local team put up a plucky fight, the resulting in 26 to 18, in favor of the visiting team.

On Friday evening the 13th—an unlucky date—the Jamestown teams go to Alpha to play a return game with the Beaver Creek teams.

The revival services of the Friends church which were conducted by Miss Marie Cassell and her assistant Mrs. Pearl Redding of Richmond, Ind., closed on Sunday evening with a good interest. There were fifteen conversions during the meeting.

The ladies of the Church of Christ will serve lunch at the Watkins and Frame sale, on Friday the 13th.

The many friends of Mrs. Sue Harper who fell on the ice and broke her leg just above the knee, are glad to learn that she is doing nicely at the McClellan hospital in Xenia.

IT FELT LIKE MY BACK WOULD BREAK

Dull, aching pains over kidneys, pains in joints and muscles made life miserable for this Canton man.

The great root and herb remedy Dreco was quick in wiping away all his troubles.

"I've stayed on my job many a time with my back aching like it would break," said Mr. Clark Turner, a bricklayer who lives at 1001 Lawrence Road, Canton, O.

"I think my kidneys were at fault, but no medicine I ever took helped me much. Every turn or movement gave me pain, and bending over or lifting anything heavy was specially painful.

"I also had a bad case of stomach trouble. After eating I'd have a full, heavy feeling and would belch gas. My bowels were constipated and my liver lazy, which gave me a tired, dull feeling every morning, making me grouchy. I was often dizzy and could see spots dancing before my eyes. My tongue was coated and breath foul.

"After taking Dreco I am happy to report a great change in my feelings. I can eat anything I want with no fear of gas or bloating as my stomach digests anything perfectly. I know my liver has been cleaned off thoroughly for those headaches, dizzy spells, tired, dull, grouchy feeling of mornings have gone, and I get up fresh and full of energy, ready for big work. The backache has been entirely relieved and the soreness in the joints and muscles gone. I believe in Dreco very strong, and have induced several friends to take it on account of what it did for me."

All good druggists sell Dreco and it is highly recommended in this city by

to study "The Near East."

Miss Bertha Knott, who has been ill since the holidays, is again able to teach.

Miss Olive Coe has been teaching the Third and Fourth Grades in place of Miss Meredith, who is ill.

RECORDS

AND finally Brunswick Records—artistic companions of Brunswick Phonographs. These records are made under the direction of great interpreters—men who have the power and faculty of developing musical selections as they would be played by the composers.

Just as there are directors for the opera, the stage, the orchestra, we now have directors for records.

This means that each Brunswick Record is not only the work of some accomplished artist, but is accompanied by the shadings of a renowned director.

This is why Brunswick Records rise above the qualities most records have in common. Brunswicks are more than title and artist. They bear the impress of some guiding hand. One who knows how to bring out the inherent qualities, the hidden beauty, the magnetic personality, the more spiritual intuitions of the composers.

Ask to hear these records. Made by the House of Brunswick—a name renowned in the world of music. Compare Brunswick Records with others. Be their sole judge! Look for something entirely different. Something sweeter, richer, truer! You'll find it in full measure in this new Brunswick disc!

Heart and Home Problems

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl almost seventeen years of age. I go with a boy who is just sixteen. My brother says I should not go with him as he is too young for me. He also says he is not decent. I have gone with him for some time and he has been a gentleman. Is it all right for me to go with him? E. P. S.

At your age you should be very careful of the friends you choose and should accept counsel from other members of the family. Your brother may have good reason for saying what he does. Talk the matter over with your mother and get her advice. It seems to me you are too young to go with boys.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I would like your opinion of a man who has gone with a girl two years and does not give a Christmas present. Do you think he cares for her or is he a T. W.?

He can make a big show of himself he will spend. What he has is always so much better than what any one else has. As far as treats go, he is not lavish and he has plenty of money and no one to spend it on. He is proud to go with me, having known my family name for years. If you didn't like his character, how would you suggest breaking away from a kindly manner?

LONELY JANET.

This man is selfish and because he is not engaged to you does not realize that flowers or candy at Christmas time would give you pleasure. Selfishness of this nature makes women very unhappy. If you feel that you do not like the man's character I would certainly advise you to break away from him. Refuse his invitations and do not let him call. You can be courteous but firm. Doubtless he will be hurt, but that you cannot avoid.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young girl seventeen years of age. A little over a year ago I started corresponding with a soldier in France. Last August he returned to the States. He has written me twice. I answered his last letter about three weeks ago and he hasn't answered yet. I have never seen him. He spoke about coming to see me several times, but he has not. Do you think he will write any more? If so, should I continue to correspond with him? ANXIOUS.

I have no idea whether or not the young man will write again. He may be so occupied with his former friends that he is satisfied and has lost interest in his correspondence with you. If he does write, I see no reason why you should not continue the correspondence.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: When a boy and girl go anywhere, should she ask the boy in the house when they return? If not, how late should she stay out talking to him? Should she tell him when to go home?

INQUISITIVE.

If it is after ten o'clock the girl should not invite the boy to come in. Neither should she stay out talking with him. If he makes no move to go home, she should say that it is late and she must go in.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: A friend of mine is engaged. Whenever she and her fiancé go out her mother insists that this girl take her sister, who is a few years younger, along.

INQUISITIVE.

In some countries across the water it is quite customary for engaged couples to be chaperoned when attending social functions in the evening. In the U. S. betrothed couples may attend the theater or go out to dinner without a chaperon. In the case of their being chaperoned, the chaperon should always be an older person and never a younger sister.

SAYS FRAME UP ON A SPRINGFIELD OFFICIAL MADE

Springfield, O., Feb. 11.—Charging that an attempt had been made to frame him with a charge of bribery, City Commissioner John D. Frock, Tuesday threatened to file affidavits against Detective N. J. Fischer, Grover Fleming, W. H. Thomas and others. The charges are given credence through the reports taken from a dictaphone placed in the office of Frock, which City Prosecuting Robert Flack and Attorney John M. Cole are now investigating. The placing of the dictaphone collection contract, the employment of an occupational tax collector and a proposed increase in the police chief's salary are the points of discussion which led to the sensational charges being threatened.

It is claimed that when the city commission awarded the garbage collection contract to William Whitmar, the $500 check deposited by Whitmar was signed by C. R. Baker, a partner of Grover Fleming.

Fleming claims that he and Frock had agreed that when Whitmar got the contract, Frock told Fleming it would never be turned over to him, but that he could be made supervisor if Fleming would pay Frock $2,500 and 25 hogs a year. Fleming took this proposal to Mayor B. J. Wescott.

Because of the law which prohibits a city official sharing in the proceeds of a municipal contract, Mayor Wescott called in City Solicitor McKee and Police Prosecutor Flack and the result was that the Cal Crim detective agency was placed on the trail of Frock. Dictaphones were placed in Frock's office and the conversations secured are said to be startling disclosures on the question.

The discovery of the dictaphones by Frock are alleged to have caused him to threaten charges of a "frame up" Tuesday.

TO AVOID THE "FLU"

Safety In Vigorous Blood

If You're Listless and Depressed Don't Delay a Minute—Get a Good Tonic

If you get the influenza, see a doctor at once—but why get it? Isn't it worth while, instead to take every precaution now, against getting it?

Probably the best and first thing to do is to make sure you are in good physical condition. During an epidemic, almost wherever you go you are exposed to influenza. As long as you are really well, the red corpuscles of your blood fight off and defeat disease germs. But when you are tired and run down, when you feel all right except that you haven't much energy or enthusiasm, your blood is tired out too, and you are an easy victim.

Pepto-Mangan has become famous as a builder of rich, vigorous blood. It helps you up when you are run down. It helps you avoid illness. Or, it helps you recover if you realized your poor physical condition too late.

Physicians have been recommending Pepto-Mangan for years, in cases of anemia (bloodlessness). It is reliable effective and has a record of over twenty-five years success. Take no chances with a run-down condition. Get Pepto-Mangan today. It is good health insurance.

Pepto-Mangan is sold in liquid and tablet form. There is no difference in medical value. Take either kind you prefer. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan—"Gude's." The full name should be on the package.—Advertisement.

Get Back Your Grip On Health

Physician Gives Practical Advice on What to Do To Help Build Up Your Strength Power and Endurance—Explains

How Organic Iron—Nuxated Iron—Helps Put Renewed Vim and Energy Into the Veins of the Weak, Nervous and Run-Down—

Thousands of men and women are impairing their constitutions laying themselves open to illness and literally losing their grip on health simply because their blood is thinning out and possibly starving through lack of iron.

To possess the power, energy and endurance that win the blood should be rich in strength-giving iron. For this purpose physicians below explain why they prescribe organic iron—Nuxated Iron—which by enriching the blood and creating thousands of new red blood cells often quickly transforms the flabby flesh-toneless tissues and pallid cheeks of weak, anemic men and women into a glow of health. It increases the strength of delicate, nervous, run-down folks in two weeks' time in many instances.

In explaining why he regards iron as absolutely essential to the greatest development of physical and mental power, Dr. George H. Baker, formerly Physician and Surgeon, Monmouth Memorial Hospital of New Jersey, says:

"Refined foods and modern methods of cooking have robbed us of much of the iron which Nature intended we should receive and for supplying this deficiency and increasing the red blood corpuscles I know as a tonic, strength and blood-builder, Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of nothing more effective than organic iron—Nuxated Iron. The fact that Nuxated of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital, said: "In my opinion the greatest curse to the health and strength of American people of today is the alarming deficiency of iron in their blood. Lack of sufficient iron in the blood has ruined many a man's nerves and utterly robbed him of that virile force and stamina which are so necessary to success and power in every walk of life. "Therefore I strongly advise those who feel the need of a strength and blood-builder to get a physician's prescription for organic iron—Nuxated Iron—or if you don't want to go to this trouble, then purchase only Nuxated Iron in its original packages and see that this particular name (Nuxated Iron) appears on the package."

BATTLE OF JUTLAND PRECIPITATED RUSSIAN DOWNFALL, BELIEF

London, Feb. 11.—The war's biggest naval Jutland precipitated the Russian debacle, according to the Daily Mail in commenting today upon Commander Bellar's remarkable book "The Battle of Jutland."

The Daily Mail says the book discards the official "low visibility" explanation put out after the engagement. Admiral Jellicoe, the Daily Mail says, was a victim of the admiralty's policy of caution and drew off in order not to risk any of his dreadnoughts. The newspaper points out that after this action, the necessity for a big army at home contributed to the big disaster on the western front in the spring of 1915.

Immediately after the battle of Jutland, it was explained that the German fleet escaped owing to the "low visibility" or foggy weather.)

Methodists Attend Anniversary of Church

Five hundred Methodists attended the fortieth anniversary of the founding of St. Paul's Church in Springfield Tuesday evening, of which Rev. C. W. Horn, formerly of Jamestown, is pastor.

Members of the Central M. E. church, mother church to St. Paul's attended the services in a body and the visiting minister, Rev. Hough Houston, made the opening prayer. Rev. Will J. Harney, the evangelist, who conducted a revival at the First M. E. church in this city some time ago, and who is now conducting a revival at St. Paul's delivered a sermon on "Steps Leading to Calvary."

Ivy, Collette showing her costume—and back.

What must necessarily be the limit in "bareback" dresses was displayed recently at the Pan Ball given at the Convent Garden, London, for the benefit of St. Bartholomew's hospital. Miss Ivy Collette, late of the Gaiety theater, appeared in the costume of a Naught girl. The dress had no back at all as the photo shows, a cord holding the front part in place.

HOME MADE RECIPES CATARRH AND COLDS

Nonexpensive—Cut This Out.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Ask your druggist for three quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcline and pour it into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and sniff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat so clean and healthy that germs of flu or any other germs will have a hard time gaining a foothold.

WAS NERVOUS AND RUN DOWN

RESTORED TO NORMAL HEALTH BY BIO-FEREN

"I feel I owe you people a world of gratitude for the benefit I have received in using your wonderful remedy—Bio-feren Tablets, which have completely restored me to normal conditions," says Joseph E. Webb of Muncie, Indiana.

Bio-feren is without doubt the grandest and quickest remedy for nervous, run down, weak, anemic men and women ever offered direct through the druggists and is not at all expensive.

Take two after each meal and one at bed time, and after seven days take one after each meal and one at bed time until the supply is exhausted.

Then if you feel that any claim made in this special notice is untrue—if you are not in better health—if you do not feel ambitious, more vigorous and keen minded, yes, twice as much as you did before, the druggist who sold you the tablets will gladly hand you back just what you paid for them.

All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand, or can easily get it for you.

Seven a day for seven days—Wonderful results.

Motor Fuel at its Best

Red Crown is quick firing in cold weather. The car gets underway instantly, takes the road smoothly, picks up and slows down without protest when propelled with Red Crown.

Red Crown has a low boiling point. Vaporization takes place in winter as quickly as in summer. Wide-awake steady power always awaits the throttle because Red Crown vaporizes uniformly.

Use Polarine for winter lubrication. Cold won't congeal it—it flows and lubricates perfectly. Seals in power.

The transmission and differentials need Polarine Transmission Lubricants and Cup Grease. There's a grade for every bearing.

Look for the Red Crown Sign on service stations and garages.

REAL ESTATE NOT TO BE RE-APPRAISED IN GREENE COUNTY

There will be no re-appraisal of real estate in Greene county during 1920.

County Auditor R. O. Wead, was notified Tuesday by the Ohio Tax Commission, that the meeting which was to have been held by the commission Feb. 9, for the purpose of taking action regarding the proposed reappraisal, has been postponed until September 15.

This means that the reappraisal will be deferred until 1921, and everything will probably be in readiness to start the work by the first of next January.

Some counties, expecting that a reappraisal would be ordered by the State Tax Commission this spring has started the preliminary work.

CENTRAL HIGH TO MEET BELLBROOK AT RINK ON FRIDAY

The Central High school quintet will face a formidable opponent when they stack up against Bellbrook at the rink Friday night.

The Bellbrook lads won out in the basketball tournament held by the local school a few weeks ago by defeating Cedarville in an overtime contest. They proved their superiority over any team in the county with the exception of the Central squad which was not entered in the tournament and when they hook up Friday night the winner should be the favorite for the county tournament to be held at Antioch later in the season.

The local team finally succeeded in breaking their long losing streak and are confident of their ability to hand the Bellbrook aggregation a decisive trimming.

The shifting of Riddell greatly added to the guarding branch of the local team and did not detract from its scoring ability as Knece possesses a good eye for the basket and once he gets the hang of the position should be able to drop them in regularly.

JAMES RESIGNS AS DAYTON SAFETY CHIEF

Dayton, O., Feb. 1.—In accordance with the recommendation of the special gambling probe committee and acting on the request of City Manager Barlow, Safety Director Harry P. James tendered his resignation to this city Tuesday.

The contents of the official report were made public Tuesday and it is likely that a special investigation of Inspectors S. E. Tendes and T. C. Grundish and Bertillon Superintendent J. H. Wilcox will be made to see if they "willfully perjured themselves" in giving testimony before the probe committee.

Successor to Director James will probably be appointed today, in the mean time City Manager Barlow acting in this capacity. The manager has written the heads of the safety departments advising them that he will be director of safety and will hold them accountable for their departments.

That there will be no changes made in the police department at this time was made plain by City Manager Barlow. The police including Chief Alaback were freed from any blame concerning the gambling situation in Dayton by the report of the committee.

TROUBLES FROM MY AGE

Mrs. Baney tells how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her Through the Change of Middle Life.

Rochester, Ind.—"My troubles were from my age and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me wonderfully. I took doctor's medicine and other patent medicine but the Vegetable Compound has helped my nerves more than anything I have ever taken. I am thankful to the one who recommended it to me and what the medicine has done for me."

—Mrs. LETTIE BANEY, 468 East 9th St., Rochester, Indiana.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and dizziness should be heeded by middle-aged women and let Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound carry them safely through this crisis as it did Mrs. Baney.

INCOME BLANKS ARE NOW READY: EXPERT COMING

Persons who have an income of less than $5,000 and who have to make a personal income tax return, can secure the blanks at the office of the Chamber of Commerce if they have not yet received them.

Secretary L. C. Tingley has secured a number of the blanks and will furnish them to citizens of this community who have not yet secured their income tax blanks, as a part of the service of the Chamber of Commerce.

Persons who paid an income tax last year will or already have received blanks from the office of the internal revenue collector at Cincinnati, but those who did not have to file an income tax last year must do so on or before March 15. In order to do this they must either secure a blank by writing directly to the office of the internal revenue collector at Cincinnati, obtaining one from the Deputy Collector of this county, who is C. G. Merker of Wilmington, or securing the blanks in some other manner.

Deputy Collector Merker of Wilmington will be in this city from February 16 to 21 inclusive and from the 12 to 13 of March inclusive, at which time he will furnish blanks, give advice concerning the filing of the tax returns or assist in filling out the blanks. During the time he is in Xenia the Deputy Collector will make his headquarters at the Chamber of Commerce for the time being.

The Deputy Collector advises that as the blanks are now ready, everyone who has to file a personal income tax return should secure the necessary papers and have the returns in March 15. He has established an itinerary throughout Greene county, is announcing the following dates on which he will be at the different towns in this county:

Wilmington, February 9 to 14 inclusive, February 16 to 21 inclusive, Sabina, February 23, 24 and 25, Blanchester, February 26, New Vienna, February 27 and 28, Martinsville, March 1, Clarksville, March 2, Port William, March 3, Jamestown, March 4 and 5, Cedarville, March 6, Spring Valley, March 8 and 9, Yellow Springs, March 10 and 11, Xenia, March 12 and 13, Wilmington, March 15.

LEGAL HOLIDAY TO BE OBSERVED THURSDAY

Owing to the fact that Thursday is Lincoln's birthday and a legal holiday, all Xenia Banking institutions and all city and county offices will close down.

The three Xenia banks and the two building and loans will be affected as well as all the county offices in the court house and the city offices in the city building, excluding of course police headquarters. Both public buildings will be closed all day, although the city building will be open for the regular city commission meeting Thursday night. The meeting will be the first in three weeks owing to there being five weeks in January.

REA ESTATE
Ralph E. Gerth, field representative of the Gerth Realty Company of New Orleans, visited this city at the invitation of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday and consulted with Frank W. Dodds concerning the development of the Roberts estate.

Mr. Gerth represents one of the largest realty development concerns in the country and he covers the entire North American continent for his firm. His duty is to pass on subdivisions as to whether they are favorable for his concern to handle and to determine the buying power of the community to see how many lots could be absorbed.

Mr. Gerth was very enthusiastic concerning the prospects for the development of the Roberts tract here. He said "This county at this time should be able to absorb between 200 and 300 lots." He said further that he considered the Roberts tract the finest he has seen this year from a standpoint of selling and development. He has just returned from Oklahoma city, where he inspected an industrial subdivision there located close to the heart of the city, which he thought at that time was the best in the country, but he now thinks that the Xenia tract far surpasses that proposition.

Mr. Gerth was entertained while in this city by Secretary L. C. Tingley of the Chamber of Commerce and left Tuesday night for Richmond, Va., then passing on through the Carolinas and back to New Orleans. He will be on the Pacific Coast next week.

Mr. Dodds was very much interested in meeting this real estate expert and is considering his proposition.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets
Are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. For 17 years he used these tablets (a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil) in his private practice with great success.

They do all the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. No pains, no griping, no injury to the gums or danger from acid foods—yet they stimulate the liver and bowels. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." Note how they clear clouded brain and work up the spirits. 10c and 25c a box.

More Paper Than Flour

Few people realize the extent to which paper is used today.

The per capita consumption of paper is greater than that of flour.

The United States consumes over one-half of the world's production of paper, and is the greatest pulp and paper producing country in the world.

The use of paper and paper products is universal. The manufacture of paper is one of the fundamental industries.

The largest consumers of paper in this country are the newspapers. "Newsprint paper" is a product as essential to progress as coal, oil, steel or iron.

No newspaper is getting as much paper as it wants. They are placing contracts far in advance at prices current at time of delivery. This condition of demand being greater than supply is exceedingly favorable for the paper mill companies. With careful management and ample capital their continued prosperity is assured.

We will shortly offer the guaranteed obligation of a paper mill which meets every requirement of the conservative investor. This issue will be tax-free in Ohio, will pay 7 per cent a year, and will be offered at slightly under par.

We believe this security will rank among the best to be had in any market.

MAKING MEAT PIES

Pastry for Meat Pies—Cream together one and one-half tablespoons of lard and the same amount of butter. Cut this into one cup of flour, into which has been mixed one-half teaspoon of salt and one teaspoon of baking powder.

Use just enough cold milk to cause the particles to stick together when pressed. Let the pastry extend to the edge of the wide flat brim; bake in a moderately hot oven till the top is an even, light brown. Brush lightly with milk and return to the oven to finish browning.

This dish is placed on the table and the pie is served from that. Oxtail Pot Pie—Wash and soak two oxtails, cut in two-inch pieces, in cold water for half an hour. Drain, cover with boiling water, add one faggot of soup herbs, one carrot cut in dice and one onion cut in quarters. Bring to a boil and cook slowly until tender.

Put tails in baking dish and add one dozen small parboiled potatoes, four onions, cooked until tender and one cup cooked carrots. Season the gravy and thicken with flour or cornstarch. Strain over the vegetables and tails in the baking dish. Cover with the crust and bake thirty minutes in a hot oven.

COLD WEATHER PUDDINGS

Fruit Pudding—Six sour apples sliced as for pie. Cream one large tablespoon lard with one-half cup sugar, add one egg beaten, one cup milk, two cups flour, two teaspoons baking powder sifted with pinch of salt and flour; stir in thick batter and pour over the fruit and bake three-quarters of an hour in a moderate oven. Use granite pan for baking.

Canned cherries or peaches are just as good as apples. Eat with sweet milk and sugar with grated nutmeg.

Steamed Cherry Pudding—One quart flour, two eggs, two heaping teaspoons baking powder; add sweet milk to make stiff batter. Stir in one pint of seeded cherries and steam two hours. Eat with sweetened milk, flavor with nutmeg.

Chocolate Pudding (eggless)—Mix together three cups sugar and four tablespoons cornstarch; add one cup rich milk and one cup water, one tablespoon butter. Put on fire and add melted cocoa and cook until thick. Take from fire and add vanilla. Cool and serve in individual dishes. Put cream on top. Only takes few minutes to make.

Old Fashioned Suet Pudding—One cup fresh suet chopped very fine, two cups wheat flour, one teaspoon salt, a little pepper. Rub together like pie crust. Put in cloth sack, lay on top of potatoes when they commence to boil.

When potatoes are done slip pudding out of sack on granite pan, place in oven five minutes. Serve hot.

A MODERN STORY OF HOME AND BUSINESS

Mary Tells Jerry Plain Truths.
Chapter 49.

Mary, while often using slang, had never before been profane. I was so astonished when she called me a "damn fool," that for a moment I could not gather my wits to answer. Then I said:

"If I am, you needn't swear and you might tell me in what way I am such a fool."

"Why didn't you go to that picnic?"

"Because I didn't want to! I would have been bored to extinction."

"Was that all the reason you stayed at home? Honest Injun?"

Cross my heart! I don't know anyone in the store and so of course knew none of their wives or sweethearts. So I told Robert to go without me. My vacation comes next week too, and I hated to ask Madame for a whole day off only a week before I go away."

"So you sent your husband off to spend a blissful day with another woman. No wonder I said you was a

"Don't say it again! But just the same, I can't see why you always talk as if I ought to do things I don't want to do, because of Robert he doesn't want me to go to the places or do things that bore me."

"It would be better if he did. I mean you would be safer."

"Safer?"

"Safer?"

"Yes. No woman is safe whose husband don't care what she does. Take little Mary's word for that. If you had gone Robert wouldn't have asked Marion Hovey. Then they couldn't have spent that long blissful day together. Them days are safe for a married man, Gerry, honest to goodness they ain't!"

"Nonsense! Didn't I tell you Bob urged me to go? It was only because he didn't want to go alone that he asked Marion. It didn't cost him anything you see; the firm paid for everything."

"I wonder, did they? I wonder if they paid for the heartaches some of the wives of them clerks will have later because they was too selfish to go with their husbands when they asked them? It was real nice in them tho to treat their clerks."

"What a funny girl you are!" I replied, a bit impatiently. "Talking about heartaches being paid for by the Calding Company. Do be sensible, Mary?"

"Ain't I sensible? I thought I was see you want Robert to do good work, don't you?"

"Of course, I do. Any wife does, I guess."

"Well, he no man can't unless they are contented. And no man ain't contented living like you and Bob lives."

"That flat has turned your head."

I returned, now really annoyed at Mary. Every since she rented it she had preached the joys of home to anyone she could get to listen to her.

All the girls in the shop teased her about it.

"Mary's getting ready to take care of a husband," one of the girls mocked.

"Not on your life, Lucy, guess again! Little Bright-eyes don't take care of no man—not unless he's sick or something. Not even a husband. But there's one thing sure. If I ever find a man who can be fooled into marrying me, I'll know how to make a home for him."

"Kids and all!" I suppose.

"Bet your life Lucy! what is home without a baby? Now if you girls think you can razzedozzie me by poking fun, you're mistaken. I am going to learn to cook and to keep house, I may never have any chance to show off what I've learned; but if I do, just watch out."

I used to listen and smile at Mary when she talked this way. She was so earnest so honest. Once I repeated some of her nonsense to Robert and he said:

"Mary's got the right idea. She'll make some man a fine wife."

But I said nothing to Robert of what she had said about his taking Marion to the picnic, nor did I tell him what she had called me. That night he didn't get in until after midnight. I was in bed and he said he was too tired to talk; had had a love-Mary. Every since she rented it she had preached the joys of home to anyone she could get to listen to her.

Tomorrow—The Picnic's Aftermath.
